Lajnat Al-Birr Al-Islamiah
(World Assembly of Muslim Youth)

Brief Information about LBI

Introduction:

Lajnat Al-Birr Al-Islamiah "LBI" was founded in the year 1987 at Jeddah, Kingdom of Saudi Arabia by a group of intellectuals. LBI became a subsidiary organization of World Assembly of Muslim Youth (WAMY) in Saudi Arabia. The establishment of this NGO is based upon a philanthropic feeling, to provide a charitable assistance to the disturbed and needy Muslims around the globe. The genuine motive behind the establishment of LBI is to promote Kindness, Benevolence, righteousness and volunteerism by breaching the principles of the Islamic teachings.

The Headquarters of LBI office is Based at the city of Jeddah. It has several regional offices including Pakistan office serving for the Afghan Refugees.

LBI's Vision:

LBI's Board of Directors has the vision to work for the attainment of a Muslim world free of Poverty, Distresses and Illiteracy with the guidance of the Islamic teachings.

LBI's Mission:

To contribute to the pool of humanitarianism, mobilizing all the available sources/ resources to serve for the needy Muslims, to encourage their positive initiatives and contribute to the development oriented projects.

LBI's Strategies:

LBI undertakes the activities (projects) which have positive and developmental effects. Sound legally, socially, ethically and have the tendency to reduce any negative consequences in every aspect. LBI encourages the potential initiatives of the local beneficiaries aiming at the achievement of self reliance. The organization collaborates with all the coordinating bodies and the other agencies working for the same purpose.

Objectives:

LBI's Objectives are in consistence with its mission. They are classified into short and long term objectives. Emergency Reliefs are regarded as short term, while the other projects serve developmental or as a long term objectives.

Communal Role:

Thus LBI has a vital role to extend its helpful hand to both the Donors and the beneficiaries. To let the former always remember the needy, distressed people and to support the latter morally and materially by undertaking quick reliefs and developmental projects.

(World Assembly of Muslim Youth)

TO : DIRECTOR GENERAL (A)
FROM : INCHARGE, EXTERNAL RELATIONS
DATE : FEBRUARY 24, 1993
SUBJECT : REGISTRATION OF LBI

I have submitted the revised and temporary copy of the Constitution which has been amended by me according to the present objectives of the Lajna. It is requested that you should kindly send a copy of this amended copy of the Constitution as well as the following documents to Dr. Bahafzallah for necessary signatures.

1. Resolution: Names of 7 gentlemen should be filled in as the governing body, and should be signed by the General Secretary.

2. List of Office Bearers/Members: Names of 15 gentlemen (7 Governing Body and 8 members) should be filled in, and signed by the Chairman, President and the General Secretary.

It was advised by the Registration Office that our list must have some Pakistani's as Members and Office Bearers. I was informed that most of the societies that are registered with the registration office are of Pakistan origin. There is no law which suggests that foreigners cannot register themselves in a Pakistani Society. But due to the prevailing situation pertaining to some foreigners with incomplete immigration documents, some restrictions can be imposed in near future.

Presently, you have two Pakistanis from your senior staff at your Peshawar office who can be included in the list. Dr. Muhammed Sharif of the Chamkani Hospital and myself.

All the three documents (RESOLUTION & LIST OF OFFICE BEARERS) should be faxed to Dr. Bahafzallah. After selecting the office bearers/members, Dr. Bahafzallah should fax the same documents to us for onward transmission to the registration office. There is no need for the original documents at this stage. The Peshawar office can certify these documents.
